CALL FOR WORKSHOP PAPERS

“Manpower Training In the Course of Economic Development and International Integration”

To:.....
.....

1. Introduction

In the light of new requirements facing Vietnam in the course of development and integration process, the priority for “rapid development of human resources, especially that of high quality, with a focus on radical renovation of the national education, and a strong linkage between the human resources development and science and technology production and application” is regarded as one of three breakthroughs of Vietnam's Socio-Economic Development Strategy for 2011-2020. To contribute to the realization of goals set forth in the Strategy, it is essential to shed light on issues of theoretical and empirical significance to manpower training in support of the country’s economic development at the present.
